And delivers the paper Bill in favour of John Galloway and John Giles thus endorst viz.

July the 22<sup>d</sup> 1726.

The engrost Bill whereof this is the originall is read and assented to by this House

Sign'd p Order Geo Plater Cl. Up. Ho.

On the Representation of two of the Members of this House that Charles Carroll Gent has comitted a Breach of the priviledge of the said House,

Ordered that the Sergeant Attend<sup>t</sup> take the said Carroll and bring him before the House to answer for his Contempt therein.

M<sup>r</sup> Carroll in the Custody of the Sergeant appears, and it appearing that he has Challenged M<sup>r</sup> James Hollyday a Member of this House during the Sitting thereof,

Resolved that the said Carroll ask the pardon of the House for such his Offence, And that he remains in the Custody of the Sergeant untill he give Security himself in the Sume of One thousand pounds Sterling And two Securities in five hundred pounds Sterl Each to keep the peace &c. And pay to the Clerk and Sergeant Ten Shillings Each

The said Carroll asks pardon of the House but chooses rather to Continue in the Custody of the Sergeant than give the Security required.

M<sup>r</sup> James Holliday is likewise required to give the same Security for accepting the Challenge, which he Accordingly does before the hoñble Thomas Addison Esq<sup>r</sup> one of the Justices of the Provinciall Court.
