Gentlemen of the Upper & Lower houses of Assembly

In Answer to the joint Address presented me by both houses on Wednesday last, I promise you my best Endeavours to engage such a friendly Correspondence, with Our neighbours of Virginia, as you desire; which indeed seems the most probable means of promoting the Value of Tobacco, a common Concern to both Colonies

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates

I sincerely thank you, for the Marks of your Good Will towards me. I shall give Orders for the Alteration to be made in the Provincial Commission, agreeable to your late Address.

Gentlemen of both Houses

Before I dismiss you, I desire you would favourably accept my Earnest Wishes for your General Welfare, which I hope you will
