An Act altering the Bounds of Two Acres of Land heretofore granted to Great Choptank Parish, on which the Chapel in Vienna now stands

Chap. II
Amends
1727, ch. 7

Whereas, by an Act of Assembly, made at a Session of Assembly, begun and held at the City of Annapolis, the Tenth Day of October, Seventeen Hundred and Twenty seven, Intituled, An Act, declaring the Bounds of Two Acres of Land heretofore granted to Great Choptank Parish, on which, the Chapel in Vienna now stands, the Bounds of the said Two Acres, as by the said recited Act [were] ascertained.

But Forasmuch, as it is made appear to this General Assembly, That the Bounds of the said Two Acres of Land, as laid down and mentioned in the aforesaid recited Act, is very much to the Prejudice of William Ennalls, of Dorchester County, Gent. being not capable to travel to and from his House, when the Parish aforesaid shall think proper to inclose the said Two Acres of Ground; and for that, the Vestry of the said Parish have signified their Consent to this
