A Supplementary Act to the Act, Intituled, An Act for the Advancement of Justice.

Chap. X
Supplements 1723,
ch. 12

Whereas, by the Act, Intituled, An Act for the Advancement of Justice, made at a General Assembly, begun and held at Annapolis, the Twenty Second Day of September, Anno Domini Seventeen Hundred and Twenty Three, and since revived, it is Enacted, That in all Actions that should thereafter be commenced in the Provincial Court, for the Recovery of any certain Sum of Money, or Quantity of Tobacco, within the Jurisdiction of that Court, where the Plaintiff should be desirous of a speedy Recovery; that if the Plaintiff should send a Copy of the Declaration in the Case, with the Writ, and cause the same to be served on, or delivered to the Defendant, or left at his or her Place of Abode, Twenty Days, at least, before the Appearance Court, it should and might be lawful for the Justices of the said Court, and they were, by the said recited Act, required to proceed to Trial, the same Court; and if the Defendant should refuse or neglect to answer, or plead, to render Judgment for the Plaintiff, with Costs of Suit; unless sufficient Cause should be shewn by the Defendant, why there should be an Imparlance, as by the said recited Act, Relation being thereunto had, may appear.

And to the End, That no Person who shall not be found and served with the usual Process, and against whom any Judgment shall be rendered henceforth, by Virtue of the said Act, where the Debt or Damage sued for, or any Part thereof, is now, or at any Time before the Commencement of such Suit, shall be paid, shall be injured or surprized by such Judgment:

Be It Enacted, by the Right Honourable the Lord Proprietary, by and with the Advice and Consent of his Lordship's Governour, and the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly, and the Authority of the same, That when, and as often as any Sum of Money, Quantity of Tobacco, or other Goods shall be taken in Execution, or any Land shall be extended, by Virtue of any Judgment that shall be rendered against any Person, who shall not be arrested, or taken, upon, and by Virtue of the usual Process in the Case, the Person, to whose Use any Money, Tobacco, or other Effects shall be levied, or any Land extended, shall be obliged to give sufficient Security in the Provincial
