

U H. J. parts of the Province (as Severall Members of this House protest they themselves had not) and as Your Resolutions have not been so long made, or so Carefully published, as that there is even a probability that the People in Generall had Oppertunity of being Acquainted with them so it would (this house conceives) be hard to inflict the highest punishment on any one for not complying Exactly with any new Resolution, which is not promulgated so as that every person concerned therein could have Sufficient knowledge thereof; And that it would be Extreemly Rigorous to punish with loss of Liberty or Life any person under Such Circumstances.
