

Calvert of doing any thing that is disagreeable to you: As I intend to make
Papers the Province a Visit in the Fall, I shall not be more prolix at present.

Happyness to you & yours Y^r Friend & humble Serv^t

Baltimore

P. S. You are to send 50£ a year out of y^r office to Mess^{rs} Hyde & Comp^y for my Order & use.

p. 45 Additional Instructions to our Right Trusty & well Beloved Charles Lord Baltimore of our Kingdom of Ireland Proprietor & Governor of our Province of Maryland in America or to the Commander in Chief of our said Province for the time being. Given at our Court of St. James's the 5th day of May 1732 in the Fifth year of our Reign.
Sign'd George R.

p. 46 Whereas Complaint has been made to us, by our Merchants of the City of London, in behalf of themselves & Several others of our good Subjects of Great Britain trading to our Plantations in America, that greater Dutys & Impositions are laid on their Ships & Goods, than on the Ships & Goods of persons who are Natives & Inhabitants of the s^d Plantations; It is Therefore Our Will & Pleasure, that you do not upon any Pretence whatsoever, on pain of our highest displeasure, give your Assent for the future, to any Law, wherein the natives or Inhabitants of Maryland under Your government, are put on a more advantageous footing than those of this Kingdom. It is further Our Will & Pleasure, that you do not, & you are hereby expressly forbid to pass any Law, by which the Trade or Navigation of this Kingdom may be any ways affected. Hereby Declaring it to be our Royal Instruction, that no Dutys shall be laid in the Province under your Government, upon British Shipping, or upon the Product or Manufactures of Great Britain, upon any pretence whatsoever
G. R.

Black Book At the Court at Kensington the 21st day of July 1732 Present.

No. 11

The Queens most Excellent Majesty Guar Kingdom of Great Britain and Lieutenant within the same

Lord Chancellor	Earl of Burlington
Lord President	Viscount Falmouth
Lord Chamberlain	Lord Raymond
Duke of Kent	M ^r Chancellor of the Exchequer
Duke of Newcastle	S ^r Charles Wills

Whereas there was this day read at the Board the humble Memorial of Charles Lord Baltimore Lord Proprietor of the Province of Maryland Setting forth that His Majesty had been graciously pleased by His Order in Council of the 1st of July 1731 to Approve of Samuel Ogle Esq^r whom the Memorialist had Nominated and Appointed Lieutenant Governor of the said Province and that the said Ogle before his Departure for that Province had given the