Letter
No. 120

By the Upper House of Assembly 28th March 1733

Gentlemen

Although this House Could not Recede from their Amendment proposed to the Bill Entituled an Act for Regulating of Ordinaries, and the better Regulating of Ordinary Keepers and Innholders within this province, Yet we should have made a more particular Answer to your Message of 26th Instant by M^{rss} Dashiels and Hamilton, if the Rules of parliamentary proceedings Could have been found by us ever to have given Countenance to an Intercourse of Messages between the two Houses on Amendments proposed to a Bill, and therefore We have returned the said Bill to your House

Signed p Order John Ross Cl. Up. Ho.
