By the Upper House of Assembly 22 April 1735

Gentlemen

In your Message of this Day by M^{rs} Hanson & Moale in answer to Ours relating to the Allowances to be made us as a Council of State you tell us that you cannot agree to make any such Allowances without giving us any Reason why and desire We will not insist upon it a Method of answering our Message very Strange to us and which Seems to preclude us from reasoning with your House upon that Head yet considering how long this Session of Assembly has already continued and being willing rather to Suffer in our private Interests than to continue the Session longer at the publick Expence We resolve to forbear any further Dispute about Our Allowance as a Council of State at this Time & defer it to the next Session of Assembly
