The following Report (Viz)

By the Committee of Aggrievances & Courts of Justice on their Inspection into the Publick Records 19th April 1735

Your Committee having Inspected the Proceedings in the Secretarys Office, Do find in the Record Books of Judgments there are several Blanks left for Judgments to be Entered which are therein Mentioned to be so left for want of Declerations being filed.

We also find that M^r Vachael Denton was sworn Clerk of the Provincial Court the Eighteenth Day of July 1718 That after being sworn Clerk he Entered Several Judgments which Ought To have been done by M^r John Beale his Predecessor in the said Office Containing 315 folios in Lib V D N^o 3 And also Alphabetted four of the said M^r Beales Books of Judgments. p. 575

We further find that the Judgments appear to be regularly Entered by the said M^r Denton from the time he was Sworn into the said office till within October Court 1725 Except in those Causes where Declara-
