 Lib. No. 45 October Court till the said M^r Vachel Denton was Superseeded which was on the Eight Day of August 1732 We do not find any Judg-

Your Committee have also Inspected the Original Papers in those Years where the Judgments are not Entered and find them in good Haswell & John Beall; and in a Cause of the Lord Proprietary against Ernault Hawkins the Original Papers are all Missing, which were Delivered to Philemon Lloyd Esq^r then Secretary as appears to your Committee by the said M^r Lloyds Letter to M^r William Ghiselin then a Clerk under M^r Denton in the Provincial office, and your Committee are Informed that M^r Denton often applied to the from him Your Committee are also told by the said M^r Ghiselin that the said office was frequently without Books and Paper and M^r Samuel Chew Administrator of the said Philemon Lloyd Esq^r hath Likewise acquainted your Committee that M^r Vachel Denton applied to him some time in October or November last for Record Books to Enter Judgments that should have been done in the Time of the late Secretary Lloyd. That the said M^r Chew then knew of none to be had, but hath since heard of some Books which he will Endeavour to procure for the Uses aforesaid.

And your Committee further report that the Judgments since M^r
