An Act for Limitation of the Time of Shipping Tobacco.

Chap. XX

Whereas Tobacco, the only Staple of this Province, and the principal Dependance and Support of its Inhabitants, hath been generally for many Years past, shipped very late in the Summer, to their great Damage, and the Detriment of the Navigation of Great-Britain:

For prevention whereof for the future, Be it Enacted, by the Right Honourable the Lord Proprietary, by and with the Advice and Consent of His Lordship's Governour, and the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly, and the Authority of the same, That all Persons making or shipping Tobacco, within this Province, after the Twenty Fifth Day of December next, during the Continuance of this Act, that shall ship any Tobacco between the last Day of August, and the Twenty Fifth Day of November then next, in any Year, shall forfeit such Tobacco, or the full Value thereof; One Moiety to His Lordship, His Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him, her, or them, that will sue for the same: To be recovered in the
