

Besides there will be no part of the Bills of Credit Left to Answer any Publick Charge however pressing the Occasion may be which your Conferees Conceive ought and may be Provided for now with Greater Ease to the People, by Adding to the Sume to be Emittid in Bills of Credit, than by any other means whatsoever

Your Conferees therefore propose that there be a Duty of 15<sup>d</sup> Sterling p hhd and in proportion of any other Quantity instead of 12<sup>d</sup> and that there be Emittid in Bills of Credit a Sum not Exceeding in all

	90000..00..0
This Sum will be Sufficient to Answer all the Ends proposed by Emitting Bills of Credit, and have a Considerable Sum to purchase Bills of Exchange which will be a very great Addition to the fund and Advantage to the Country of £20000 to be lent on Interest, which when lent will produce an Interest p Annum of	800..00..0

This Interest will be more than Sufficient to Defray all the Expence of the whole Transaction and keep the Capital entire

Your Conferees propose that no bills be Struck for less than a Shilling, which Sort and Eighteen penny Bills will Render the Striking Six penny Bills needless, save some Expence, and make Change and Carriage more Easy and Convenient; and that the Bills be as follow

		£ s. d
30000	20 <sup>s</sup> Bills	30000..00..0
30000	15	22500..00..0
30000	10	15000..00..0
40000	2..6 <sup>d</sup>	5000..00..0
60000	1..6	4500..00..0
60000	1	3000..00..0
		£90000..00..0

Your Conferees Conceive the Salary to the Commissioners and Clerk as they stand in the Bill; are too Small

1st Because the Affair is of the greatest Consequence to the Country, and therefore ought to be put under the Management of Men of Knowledge Probity and Fortune, and such Cannot be Expected to Undertake so Important and Troublesome a Trust, without an Adequate Reward for their Service

2<sup>dly</sup> That the Comm<sup>rs</sup> must have a great deal of Trouble in the whole Transaction of which some Instances may be given, as the numbering the first Year 580000 Bills of Credit, Signing halfe that
