Your Conferrees haveing taken under their Consideracon, as well the Bill Entituled; An Act for the Relief of poor Distressed Prisoners for Debt as the Amendments proposed thereto by the Upper house, and haveing duely Considered thereof, do Agree to the Several Amendments made by the Upper house, Except such as are hereafter Mentioned and Expressed (to wit) that part of the Preamble, which Excludes all but such as are imprisoned on Account of inevitable Losses and Misfortune, and instead thereof that none be Excluded Relief, but those as shall be found to have been Guilty of fraudulent and Deceitfull practices, and that all the Amendments proposed in Relation thereto be Accordingly Altered Your Conferrees do also Agree, that no Married Person shall be lyable to be sold, to discharge all or any part of his or their Debts, And we do further propose that the last Clause in the Amendments, be Altered, and Instead of the words, who shall not make a full & Exact Discovery upon Oath of his or their Debts or Effects; these words be put in, who ever shall wittingly or willingly Neglect to make a full Discovery or true Inventory of his or her Debts or Effects: all which is Submitted to the Consideration of both Houses.
