

leave to Approach your Majesty with this Declaration of our most Inviolable Duty and Loyalty to your Majesties Sacred Person Dominion & Government

U. H. J.
Black Book
No. 6
Letter
No. 66
Lib. No. 33
p. 290

Your Majesties Continual Goodness and Paternall Care Extended to the most Distant parts for the Prosperity of all your Subjects must ever Exact the most Gratefull Acknowledgements.

And our happiness and Security under your Maj^{ties} Royall Dominion can never be too much Extolled & Valued; In your Majesties Authority Over us, We trust, That no part of this Province contained within the Limitts of the Royall Charter Granted to our Proprietary's Ancestors will be Suffered by Your Majestie to be Dismembred from this Government; By a just Preservation of those true Bounds this Province May Revive from its present Languishing Condition, And our Tobacco Trade so Advantagious to the Crown of Great Brittain further Increased, We presume to Flatter ourselves with Success in our hopes from so Good and Gratiuous a Sovereigne who never rejected the Honest and reasonable wishes of any of his Subjects

May the Happiness of the longest Life to the Universall joy of your Subjects be Inseperable from your Majesties Person; May an Increase (if possible) of Glory and Honour be continually Added to your Majesties prudent and wise Councells, And may the present pleasing Prospect of a lasting Succession in your Ma^{ties} Illustrious House to the Crown of Great Brittain never have an end. These are the Sincere and Loyall wishes of your Majesties most Dutifull and Faithfull Subjects

Jn^o Mackall Speak^r Sam^l Ogle, President

To His Royall Highness Frederick Prince of Wales

The Humble Address of the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly in the Province of Maryland

Black Book
No. 3
Letter
No. 63

May it please your Highness

We are so Sensible of the blessings & Happiness flowing from every Branch of the Royall Family to the most Distant and Extended parts of His Majesties Dominions, that we Rejoyce on this fortunate Oppertunity which we now presume to take of Presenting by our Noble Proprietary this Tender of our Dutifull Affections to your Royall Highness.

But how can wee Enough Express our Great Joy for that Benign Countenance with which your Royall Highness has been pleased to Honour our Proprietary, or how can we Sufficiently return our Humble thanks for that favourable Disposition showed towards this People in your Royall Highnesses kind Permission of our Proprietary his being amongst us! These things Render your Illustrious Person