The following Message is sent to the Lower house by Edmund Jenings Esq^r

By the Upper house of Assembly 10th April 1733

Gentlemen

The Poverty of the Province and the Low Circumstances of the People, require the best Endeavours of the Legislative power to Apply some Ease and relief to the great burthen of Levies, which the Poor Labour under every year; and as no one Article Contributes more to the Increase of a Publick Levie than the Great Charge of Assemblies, and none ought to be more ready in shewing their Commiseration for the unhappiness of the Inhabitants, than those persons, who by a Seat in either of the Houses of Assembly, must be presumed to have the Good of the Province most at heart. Therefore this house proposes to your house, and is desirous, the usual Allowance to the Members of both Houses be Either taken away, or reduced to halfe by an Act of Assembly
