The Governour communicated to the House the following Answer to the Address of this House this day presented (Viz)

Gentlemen of the Lower House of Assembly.

I have perused your Address delivered to me this Day Setting forth that it appears to your House that there has been paid to me the Sum of Five hundred and Thirty pounds Seven Shillings and six pence Sterl out of of the three pence p hh^d raised for purchasing Arms and Ammunition for the Defence of this province as also out of the money raised by Virtue of an Act for laying an imposition of three pence p hh^d on all Tobacco to be exported out of this province for the Time therein mentioned wherein you desire an Account may be laid before your House Shewing to what uses the said Sum hath been applied.

I should be very sorry to give the Lower House of Assembly the least reason to imagine that any Money paid to me has been applied to any other uses than those to which it was appropriated. As to the particular Sums that have been received by me and remitted to England for the purchasing of Arms and Ammunition, with the account of what is already laid out and what is still remaining in the Merchants hands of the said money shall be laid before you.

Sam Ogle.
