M<sup>r</sup> Dulany brings in the following Address.

To his Excellency Samuel Ogle Esq<sup>r</sup> Governour of Maryland
The humble Address of the Lower House of Assembly

p. 760

May it please Your Excellency.

We return your Ex<sup>c̄y</sup> Our unfeigned thanks for your readiness in directing the Account to be laid before us, how the money mentioned in Our last Address has been applied, which account we have received, and is full and Satisfactory: And we beg leave to embrace this Opportunity to assure your Excellency, that Our desiring the Account of the said money did not proceed from any Apprehension that you had misapplied any of it, but because we conceived it to be our Duty to enquire how any money assessed on the People we represent, has been disposed of. Your Conduct ever since this province has had the happiness of being under your administration, has been so just in every part of it, as to convince every Member of this House, that you have the publick welfare and Interest sincerely at heart, And that you detest any thing unbecoming a Man of Honour and the best of Governours.

Which was read, approved and ordered to be ingrossed.

The Address to the Governour being ingrossed and prepared; Coff King and M<sup>r</sup> Matthews sent to acquaint the Governour therewith, and to know when and where he will receive it, they return and acquaint M<sup>r</sup> Speaker, the Governour will be ready to receive it immediately in the Conference Chamber. William Stoughton Esq<sup>r</sup> and five more ordered to present the Address.

The House adjourns untill 3 of the Clock in the Afternoon
