The following Message is sent to the Lower [House] by Cot Gale

By the Upper House of Assembly 8 June 1739

Gentlemen

As We perceive by your Message of the 7th Instant that by the little Business now before Your House a Conclusion of Our Present sitting is near; We cannot consistently with the Care We ought to have for the Honour and Safety of this One of his Majestys Provinces, and the tender Regard We sincerely have for the Happiness and Ease of the People, delay any longer mentioning to you, that We do not find amongst the several ingrossed and Paper Bills now lying upon Our Table, any Bills reviving the Act Entituled An Act for raising three Pence p hh<sup>d</sup> on all Tobacco to be exported for purchasing Arms and Ammunition for the Defence of this Province; the Act Entituled An Act for the Tiyal of all Matters of fact in the Counties where they have arisen or shall arise, nor the Act Entituled an Act concerning Ordinaries and for the better regulating of Innholders and Ordinary Keepers within this Province

The first nearly concerns the Honour and Preservation of this Part of his Majestys Dominions especially at this time of Uncertainty whether there will be War or Peace in Europe; the other Two (We are sufficiently convinced) are greatly desired and almost Universally thought by the Inhabitants of this Province as proper and even necessary for their Ease Benefit and Happiness: By these Considerations We are obliged to acquaint you very plainly, that We shall as a Council of State advise his Excellency not to pass any Bill into
