The following Message from his Excellency the Governor was Communicated to M<sup>r</sup> Speaker, which he communicates to the House

Gentlemen of the Lower House of Assembly

I am obliged to you for having ordered to be entered on your Journals all the Letters and other Papers that passed on the Occasion mentioned in my Message of the 13th Instant, particularly the Two Letters from Edmund Jenings and Levin Gale, Esquires, to their Clerks, which I thought very necessary to show the Sense those
 p. 76 Gentlemen had of the Two Orders of Council of the first of August and 11th of October, last and which to prevent all mistakes, they Order'd to be communicated to Doctor Carroll and M<sup>r</sup> Denton

And if none of the abovementioned Letters and Papers are yet printed in the Votes and Proceedings of your House, I hope you will Order them to be Printed all together, that every Body may see at one View all that has passed, relating to an Affair, that has been so much talked of.
