

It. To this Depon^{ts} Sonne Ignatius Cawsine, he gaue his best suite of cloathes Liber
P. C. R.

It. Hee did bequeath to his Cozen Robert Cole five hund^d pownds of Tob, and told this Depon^t hee did it, that hee should not molest his Exequuto^{rs}.

It. That all his Cattle should bee brought to this Depon^{ts} howse, & there remaine for three yeares, & att the end thereof the encrease should be sould, to help pay the Legacies, And the Principall stock he gaue to this Depon^t.

And if in case his sonne in Law M^r James Neale, or any from him, did not come, wth in the tearme of Three yeares into Maryland, That that Land belonging to him should bee disposed of by his Exequuto^{rs}, And after they had performed his Legacies, the Remainder he gaue to his Exequuto^{rs}, And wth all desyred th^t some what out of Charity might be gyuen by his Exequuto^{rs} to such poore men as M^r Greene, what they should think good, & further sayth not.

Sworne before me, the day and yeare aboue written Job Chandler.

The Deposⁿ of Mary Adams aged 21 yeares or thereabout sworne & examined this 16th of August 1658.

Sayth That Benjamin Gill deceased, when hee made his Will, did giue One Thowsand pownds of Tob to the Church w^{ch} was in M^r Gerards, & M^r Slys hands, as hee supposed or more: But if it were not, he desyred his Exequuto^{rs} should see it made good, Item hee gaue to this Depon^{ts} ffather in Law Nicholas Cawsine five hund^d pownds of Tob, & to this Depon^{ts} mother hee gaue five hund^d pownds of Tob, And to this Depon^{ts} sister Jane Cockshott, & to her Brothers Ignatius & Nicholas Cawsines to each of them he gaue five hund^d pownds of Tob, And th^t if his sonne in Law M^r James Neale, or any of his Children did not come into Maryland wth in three yeares, That then his Land & encrease of his cattle, should be sould by his Exequuto^{rs} & further sayth not

Sworne before me, the day & yeare aboue written Job. Chandler

Thomas Carpenter Sworne in open Court Sayth, That hee was wth M^r Gill many times before hee dyed during his sicknes & putt him in mind of making his Will, And M^r Gill tould him, that hee had sent for M^r Gerard, & when M^r Gerard came hee would make his Will, And th^t hee would make M^r Gerard & M^r Adams Exequuto^{rs}, And this Depon^t goeing from him the day before hee dyed, hee desyred him to speake to M^r Slye for some comfortable things, for that hee thought the worst to be past wth him, And then he had made noe will, as this Depon^t knowes of, And further many times discoursing wth the s^d M^r Gill hee heard him say, That hee would giue Robert Cole five hund^d pownds of Tob. & further sayth not p. 131