

Jane Chambers aged 17 yeares or thereabouts Sayth, That the second day of May, Elizabeth Potter & this Depon^t going to Goodman Smiths howse there was a fidler, And th^t when they were going home againe, This fidler sayd hee would goe to Cap^t Gwythers to fetch a warr^t, And he not knowing the way Goodman Smith desyred the s^d Elizabeth to shew him the path, as shee went along, W^{ch} shee did, & it being late, hee desyred to take up his habita^on that night att her howse, w^{ch} shee consented unto, The next morning the s^d fidler desyred Henry Potter to goe wth him to Martin Kirke to demand a Runaway, And the s^d Henry Potter sayd, If I should putt yo^u into the s^d Kerks hands, for a Runaway, it would bee a pretty ieast. Doe then sayd the ffidler, And the s^d Potter asked him if there would come any harme thereof, or noe, & the ffidler answered noe, saying th^t if Keirke should goe to pull him in, he should goe nigh to giue him a dash in the Teeth, w^{ch} the s^d Henry Potter desyred him not to doe, & further sayth not.

Liber
P. C. R.
Re Potter
p. 138

Jurat 7^o Octob. cora G. Thompson.

Rose Smith aged 59 yeares or thereabouts Sayth that Will^m Thomas sayd in her hearing, That hee was sorry th^t hee tooke the Oath agst Potter, ffor it would undoe him, & th^t M^r Caluert should say, hee would banish the s^d Potter out of the Country, The s^d Thomas asked M^r Caluert what hee would doe wth Potters Children, & M^r Caluert should reply, They would doe aswell wth him as wth their Parents, & further Sayth not.

Jurat Eod die Cora G Thompson

John Bisco aged 49 yeares or thereabouts Sayth, That Will^m Thomas did desyre Henry Potter to putt him into the Cunstables hands for a Runaway, & th^t the s^d Potter did desyre him to declare, whither he thought it would be the occasion of any trouble, yea or noe, & that the s^d Thomas sayd noe, & further Sayth not.

Jurat Eod die Cora G Thompson.

Will^m Orsberston aged 33 yeares or thereabouts Sayth, That about 16 yeares agoe this Depon^t heard M^r Leonard Caluert force 300 Acres of Land uppon Thomas Orley & Isaack Edwards: of w^{ch} they would haue had but 50: but because they were seated in the cheifest place, & he threatning them to turne them of tooke the whole 300 Acres. This their agreem^t was about Christmasse, & they were to pay six barrells of Corne, & Twelue Capons yearely, & M^r Caluert bownded them from the head of Langfords Creek to the head of the Creek ioyning to the Planta^on, & this Depon^t was a Seru^t att th^t time to Tho: Orley, & the s^d Orley sould him to Tho: Allen & halfe the Land, & M^r Caluert comming downe, Tho: Butler tould the s^d M^r Caluert That hee had but little good Land in his

Re Orley