

Liber
P. C. R. This Exam^d being demanded how shee came by M^r Ouerzees goods, first deliuered a Paper signed by her selfe & witnessed by Philip Land, Contayning her Confession hereunto annexed. And then further confessed That shee desyred M^r Chandler to lett her haue the keyes to fetch some spice uppon that Sunday morning uppon w^{ch} M^{rs} Ouerzee was carryed to Church to be buryed. That M^r Chandler being in Bed in the loft, Mary Clocker called this Exam^d up (shee being in bed) to goe fetch the Bunch of Keyes from M^r Chandler uppon pretence to take spice, that they might open M^{rs} Ouerzees Trunks, w^{ch} shee accordingly did. That Mary Clocker lay in the roome, & that shee shutt the spring lock on them both, when they had the keyes of the Trunk. That shee this Exam^d did open the upper part of the Greate Dutch Trunk that stood in the

p. 167 Roome (Viz that Roome where M^{rs} Ouerzee in her life time lay) & that out of th^t upper part of the Trunk Mary Clocker grasped a bundle of Linnen bigger then fowre or fue shiffts could possibly make but what they were as to quantity or quality shee then knew not. Shutting downe the Trunk immediately & goeing out immediately telling the s^d Clocker M^r Chandler was comming. That the s^d Clocker called her back againe alleaging M^r Chandler was not comming, to w^{ch} shee this Exam^d assented, & putting the doore to shee then opened the Vnder Drawers of the s^d Dutch Trunk w^{ch} were full of small linnen, out of w^{ch} the s^d Clocker tooke & tumbled out what shee pleased into her Apron, but what they were shee knew not then nor afterwards, but by the Relaõ of Mary Clocker, when shee came to see the child of M^r Ouerzee then att nurse wth the s^d Clocker. Att what time shee brought out some things & shared them wth this Exam^d, But whither they were all that shee tooke out of the Trunk shee knoweth not, but beleiue th^t they were not all, by the bignes of the Bundle shee tooke out of the upper part of the Trunk afores^d, That uppon the ffriday after M^{rs} Ouerzee was buryed M^r Chandler deliuering some Keyes to this Exam^d to lay up a peice of Cloth, shee by the helpe of those Keyes opened a Trunk in an upper Roome where M^r Chandler lay, & tooke those things out, w^{ch} were after hid in the Tree by her husband, & after fownd by the Children, & after th^t conueyed by her s^d husband to Andrew Warners. That for those goods carryed in a Bagge by Warners Wife to the Church & from thence by John Williams to Andrew Warners shee this Exam^d tooke them out of M^{rs} Ouerzees Closett, w^{ch} euery Body ordinarily went into, for meate & other necessaries of houshold. That there stood another Trunk in the Chamber where Mary Clocker law, in w^{ch} was all the sheetes & Chilbed Linnen M^{rs} Ouerzee had intended for her Lying in: & all the Childs Linnen th^t uppon the ffriday night after the Buriall of M^{rs} Ouerzee this Exam^d casually left the Keyes in this Trunk all the Linnen being in the Trunk att that time when shee forgott the Key in itt. That Mary Clockers Daughter Mary Lay wth her mother th^t night. That this Exam^d lay there also but went