

Liber for M^{rs} Ouerzee & uery well remembers th^t shee mended the slitt th^t
 P. C. R. is in the side of the Apron neare the Toppe presently after M^{rs} Ouerzee came from Portoback And allso a holland Bed for a Child taken att the same place, shee sayth th^t shee uerily beleiueth it was M^{rs} Ouerzees because shee misseth one of that number

Philip Caluert Richard Willan

p. 169 The Examinaõn of Mary Clocker apprehended uppon Suspition of ffelony taken the second day of Nouember 1658 before Philip Caluert Esq^r & Richard Willan Gentⁿ Two of his L^{ps} Justices of the Peace for the County of S^t Maries

This Exam^d denyeth th^t euer shee tooke any thing of M^{rs} Ouerzees but confesseth th^t shee had diuers things by the deliury of Mary Williams to keepe for her the s^d Williams, & th^t the s^d Williams did deliuer the things to her this Exam^d in M^{rs} Ouerzees Chamber all att one time, but att what time shee remembreth not. That shee did see the Dutch Trunk in M^{rs} Ouerzees Chamber opened by Mary Williams, & shee thinks it was att th^t time when Mary Williams tooke out the Linnen th^t shee deliuered to her this Exam^d

Philip Caluert Richard Willan

The Examinaõn of Thomas Courtney apprehended uppon Suspition of ffelony taken before ut supra.

2^d Nouemb^r 1658

The Exam^d Sayth th^t his mother Mary Clocker sent him to John Williams, & tould him th^t the s^d Williams would know what he came for. That when he came to M^r Ouerzees, Mary Williams seeing this Exam^d stay wth out saying any thing, asked him whither hee came for any thing thither or not. To w^{ch} this Exam^d replied hee came for salt, nobody being att th^t time by but John Williams. That after this hee this Exam^d went into M^r Ouerzees Kitchen, where were diuers of the seruants & John Williams. That Mary Williams coming into the Kitchin, John Williams gaue this Exam^d a priuate Rubbe wth his Elbowe, by w^{ch} he coniectured the s^d Williams would haue spoken wth him, & thereuppon followed the s^d Williams into the Roome where hee & his Wife lay, & there receaued from the s^d Williams Salt to the quantity of Three Pecks. That as hee this Exam^d was carrying the salt home hee imagined the Salt was not belonging to John Williams, but th^t hee had stolne itt from M^r Ouerzee. That one day being att the Cow pen his sister Elizabeth tould him th^t his mother had bene att home, & had brought home Two smocks wth her.

Philip Caluert Richard Willan

The Examinaõn of Elizabeth Clocker taken ut supra being a Child about Twelue yeares old.