

about the forementioned parcell of goods, these following (Viz), a scallop handkercher, a buttond hankercher| Three fflaunders Lacd' quoyfes another fflaunders Lacd' quoyfe wth bandstrings| a fflaunders Lacd' pinner| a fflaunders Lacd' gorghett| a Cambrick gorghett| another fflaunders Lacd' gorghett| Two fine holland Aprons| Two pockett handkerchers wth greate buttons| a bastard fflaunders Lacd' holland smock| a fflaunders Lacd' holland smock| To the ualew of fifty pownds sterling, agst [the peace] of his s^d Lordship his Rule & Gouvernm^t.

Liber
P. C. R.

The Prisoner pleades Not Gwilty.

The Jury doth present on the behalfe of the Lord Prop^e of this Prouince That Thomas Courtney the sonne of Mary Clocker of S^t Andrews in the County of S^t Maries did after the ffact or Theft committed, feloniously receaue from John & Mary Williams late of S^t Johns in the County afores^d Three pecks of Sallt, & the same Carry away to S^t Andrews afores^d to the ualue of ffowre pence agst the peace of his s^d Lordship his Rule & gouernm^t

Presentment
Thomas
Courtney

The Prisoner likewise pleads not Gwilty.

And the Jury all Agreeing The fforeman deliuered their Verdict (Viz) John Williams & Mary Williams (as Principalls) Guilty to the ualue of ffifty shillings.

Mary Courtney (as Accessary) Gwilty to the ualue of ffifty shillings

Thomas Courtney (as Accessary) Guilty to the ualue of fowre pence.

Writt to the Sheriffe to take the Prisoners att the Barre, & them keep under safe Custody till they bee againe called for.

To the hon^{bte} Josias ffendall Esq^r Leiuten^t of Maryland wth the rest of the Councill of State.

p. 181

The humble Complaynt of Thomas Cornewalleys Sheweth, That whereas the Complayn^t did hyre out his Sloope & small Boate unto Dauid fferreira for transporting of his good up Potowmeck Riuer, Now soe it is th^t after the s^d Sloope & Boate came aboard the Catch where the s^d Dauid fferreiras' goods were, hee changed his mind & made of the s^d Sloope & Boate only to Land his goods att Edward Packers in S^t Georges Riuer, After the Landing of w^{ch} goods, & th^t the s^d Sloope was anchored before Edward Packers, & the small boate brought on shoare & there fastned by Edmund Nanfan Seruant to the s^d Thomas Cornewalleys, John Mickay (Seruant to Edward Packer) tooke the s^d Boate to haue fetchd some fowle th^t were shott by an Indian belonging to the s^d Packer, But as hee was goinge the s^d Dauid fferreira hauing some occasion to use the Boate, Commanded him to bring her on shoare, w^{ch} accordingly hee did, & there left her wth the s^d Dauid & for his seruice, who hauing fownd a Cask of

Cornwaleys
v. Fereira