Slye v. Jolly
et al.

The humble Petⁿ of Robert Slye humbly Sheweth Whereas Two men Seruants running away from yo^r Pet^r came to Mattapany in Patux^t about the beginning of Nouemb^r last. Where James Jolley & Will^m Hows mett wth the s^d Runawayes & there seized vpon their Two gunns & lett them goe, or as may be doubted did contriue their conueyance from thence, to the great preiudice of yo^r Pet^r. Wherefore yo^r Pet^{rs} earnest request is that the aforementioned parties may be strictly & seuerally examined by this hon^{bte} Board, what was the reason of their proceeding soe uniust & illegally in taking the gunns wth out stopping the seruants. And in case it may by any meanes appeare th^t the s^d Hows & Jolley were accessory to, or acquainted wth the designe of the afores^d Runawayes, That the hon^{bte} Board please to take it into yo^r most serious Consideraōns & afford yo^r Pet^r releife in the premises &c :

Vppon the Petⁿ of M^r Rob^t Slye

William Howes examined Sayth That hee & James Jolley being att Matapanian ffort, they there mett wth Two men, who told them first that they came from Seauerne, & then after a while that they came from Virginia, & that they were in Debt there, w^{ch} caused them to goe amongst the Indians. Soe fearing least the Indians should take away their gunns they had wth them, They presumed to take them away themselues. And that Those Two men gyuing an Indian a
