To the hon^{bte} Josias ffendall Gouerno^r of Maryland. The answer of Job Chandler to the Complaynt of Cap^t Thomas Cornewaleys in Chancery. Humbly Sheweth That whereas he Sayth That uppon a Tract of Land w^{ch} Co^{tt} Yardley tooke up att Portoback, & his seating negros uppon itt Caused him to giue Creditt to the s^d Co^{tt} Yardley & one Nathaniel Batt, w^{ch} was as the dēft hath heard, for noe more then a Watch of small price & ualue. In answer to the aboues^d premises the dēft sayth, That the Cred^r should haue done well to haue made better Inquisition into his Deb^{ts} Creditt: ffor the Estate w^{ch} the Cred^r wth the Land, Sayth caused him to trust him, or them, did solely & properly belong unto his Mother in Law, M^{rs} Sarah Yardley, being purchased by her Estate, & the s^d Co^{tt} Yardley by a Bill under his hand to his s^d mother in Law before his marriage, was not to haue any claime or interest in, during her life. And where the p^{tf} Sayth That after an Attatchm^t was serued That the dēft did by his instigaōn stop the proceedings of the Attatchm^t.
The w^{ch} the dēft utterly denyeth, being att th^t time att Annarundell, & came not from thence in seauen or eight weeks after. And th^t there were Two other Attatchm^{ts} att the same time serued, as this Depon^t will make appeare: And th^t if the Attorney of the Complaynt^t had bene as carefull of his Interest, as they to whom the other Two Attatchm^{ts} were graunted, hee knoweth not butt hee had had satisfaction as well as they allthough to the best of this Defend^{ts} knowledge, the Attatchm^{ts} were graunted about Three weekes after the Decease of the s^d Co^{tt} Yardley, w^{ch} hee supposeth illegall, The order hauing past agst the s^d Co^{tt} Yardley long before in his life time.
And as Concerning his second Attatchm^t, graunted unto his Attorney
