

Depon^t brought the s^d horse to M^{rs} ffenwicks, shee sayd th^t shee knew him by nothing but by his naturall marks, & further sayth not. Liber
P. C. R.

I Cuthbert ffenwick am able to sweare to all this as John Bogue in his former Deposⁿ, Excepting only, I doe not remember th^t I heard M^r Mathewes say, th^t Cap^t Cornwaleys had made the horse, wthin mentioned, to swimme ouer S^t Inegos Creek into M^r Mathewes neck of Land. p. 242

Cuthbert ffenwick.

Martin Kirk aged 42 yeares sworne sayth, That about Michàelmas last was fowre yeares or thereabouts, this Depon^t comming from S^t Marie to his owne howse, & sitting downe in the woods to take a pipe of Tob. did see a white roand horse colt, wth a white streake downe the face, quite to the nose & did see the s^d Colt runne to M^{rs} ffenwicks white mare (w^{ch} Docto^e Barber now hath) & suck her. This was uppon the left hand of the path, And uppon the right hand of the path there was a Roand Mare, & a Browne Bay Colt, & a Black mare & Colt, & many other horses, but whose they were this Depon^t knoweth not. And this Depon^t further sayth th^t the Roand horse now in the possesⁿ of M^{rs} Jane ffenwick is the same horse th^t hee saw suck M^{rs} ffenwicks mare in the woods as afores^d & further this Depon^t sayth not.

The Depos^{ns} appearing positieue, It is Ordered th^t M^{rs} ffenwicke keepe & possesse the s^d horse.

In this Cause John Anderton Gentⁿ deposed Sayth, That M^{rs} Rob^t Taylo^r told M^{rs} Eltonhead when shee deliuered the note, for to demand his the s^d M^r Taylo^{rs} Bill from Will^m Berry, That hee would pay her the Order of Court w^{ch} was fiuteene hund^d pownds of Tob, And th^t hee was glad hee had th^t note to demand his Bill in, & would rather pay it to her, then to another. And th^t that Bill due from M^r Taylo^r, was belonging to M^r Scarborough. Mrs Jane
