

M^r Attorney proceedeth & sayth, That his Disciples or followers by his instigaõn & Councell are the only persons, who comply not, but breake the Lawes of this prouince & therefore desyres the Court to proceed to Judgm^t.

Liber
P. C. R.

And thereupon It is Ordered, th^t according to the Act the s^d Thurstone remaine in the Sheriffs Custody close Prisoner wthout bayle or mainprize for a Tweluemonth from this day, unlesse the Gou^e & Councell shall see cause to release him sooner.

Mittimus to the Sheriffe according to the Order.

Richard Smith Attorney Generall on the behalfe of the Right hon^{bte} the Lord Proprietary of this Prouince Sheweth That Daniel Hutt Master of the Barke called the May flower, not being an Inhab^t of this Prouince, did wthout Lycence uppon the 29th day of March last, att Pamaunkey, in Pascatoway Riuer, & diuers times since wth the Indians, Inhabitants wthin this Prouince for Corne unlawfully trade; & in the s^d Barke, the s^d Corne endeauo^r unlawfully out of the Prouince to transport, wthout lycence first had & obteyned contrary to the seuerall Lawes, in th^t Case prouided. And prayeth th^t the Court will according to the s^d seuerall Lawes agst the s^d Hutt, & the s^d Vessell to proceed. The dēft sayth th^t hee hath not broken the Laws or Acts of this Prouince in soe trading, as is alleaged, And if any thing was committed by him in th^t kind, was through ignorance done, & not in contempt of the gouerm^t or Lawes of the Prouince. And preferd^r his Petⁿ to the Board to th^t effect.

p. 250
Attorney
General v.
Hutt

Whereupon the Wittnesses were examined.

Thomas Payne sworne in open Court, Sayth, That hee went in the Vessell belonging to M^r Hutt up Patowmeck Riuer, to a Towne called Pamaunkey & th^t the Indians brought Corne to the shoare side, & the Barks company in their owne Boate fetcht itt aboard. And th^t there were more guns in the Vessell then usually they did carry to secure it: But knows not whither any of the s^d guns were sold or noe: neyther saw hee any of them carryed from aboard, And th^t hee hath seene but little powder in the Barke, Nor knoweth hee wth what kind of Truck, the Corne soe brought on board was purchased wth, from the Indians, (hee being neuer but once ashoare), & that M^r Dodman & one Maphey went up the Riuer in the s^d Vessell allso.

John Walton aged 36 yeares, or there abouts sworne & examined sayth That Cap^t Stone, & hee this Depon^t, being up att Patowmeck, in Patowmeck Riuer, mett there M^r Daniel Hutt wth a Barke, & th^t the Barks Boate was up the Creek trading wth the Indians, & Daniel Hutt, & Robert Maphyes tould this Depon^t, th^t they had bought more Corne then they had yett aboard & he further declareth, th^t the same day hee this Depon^t was buying Corne & the s^d Maphyes