

would not lay her Child to any such fellow as this Depon^t, But th^t shee would father it, uppon such an One as John Ward or Richard Smith, & further sayth not. Liber
P. C. R.

Richard Dode aged 25 yeares or thereabouts, sworne & examined in open Court, Sayth That M^r Turner came unto this Depon^t & asked him whither his Wife could nurse his Child or noe? And this Depon^t answered noe, for he thought his Wife was wth Child, & therefore could not, & further sayth not.

Mary Dode aged 21 yeares or thereabouts sworne & examined in open Court, Sayth, That M^r Arthure Turner came to her, desyring her to nurse his Child, & this Depon^t answered, shee could not, for shee thought shee was wth Child herselfe, But if hee would haue it Dry-nursd, shee would doe her best endeauo^r for it. Thereuppon the s^d Turner answered th^t if this Depon^t could bring it up by hand, Lucie Stratton should, further sayth not. p. 256

John Ashbrooke sworne in open Court, att the request of M^r Arthure Turner Sayth, That hee heard Lucie Stratton Say, th^t shee could lay the Child borne of her Body, to Will^m Bowles, but th^t shee would not doe, because shee thought in her Conscience, th^t the Child afores^d was M^r Arthure Turners, & further Sayth not.

Walter Gwest sworne in Court att the request of M^r Arthure Turner Sayth th^t hee heard John Ashbrooke say, th^t Lucie Stratton did say th^t shee could lay the Child borne of her, wth a safe conscience to Will^m Bowles as well as to Arthure Turner, & further sayth not.

Margarett Pearce Jurat ide^m uerbatim quod Walter Gwest supra.

Anne Gwy aged 50 yeares or thereabouts sworne & examined in open Court, Sayth, That being wth Lucie Stratton the Saterdag after shee was deliuered of her Child, M^r Arthure Turner came & desyred this Depon^t to looke to the s^d Stratton & his Child. Whereuppon this Depon^t answered him th^t shee could not, by reason shee had diuerse lame folks in her howse, And the Sabaoth following the s^d Turner desyred this Depon^t to speake to the s^d Lucie & trye if shee could p^eswade her to marry him. To whom the s^d Lucie replied, th^t shee could not loue him, much lesse make him her husband, & further sayth not.

Christopher Russell aged 45 yeares or thereabouts sworne & examined in open Court att the request of Lucie Stratton, Sayth, th^t M^r Arthure Turner comming unto this Depon^ts howse one euening this Depon^t desyred the s^d Turner to stay, w^{ch} hee did. And being in bed the s^d Turner asked this Depon^t his aduice. Whereuppon this Depon^t sayd, hee would giue him the best he could, Vppon w^{ch}, the s^d Turner sayd, hee had a Child layd to his Charge, To w^{ch} this Depon^t answered S^r yo^u know in conscience whither it bee yo^{rs} or noe, But I would willingly know replied the s^d Turner, whither yo^u