

of the Master the Cocquetts, hee was able to shew none. Where-uppon hee had seised her. And th^t the men on board her were in different Stories, from whence he did suspect them to bee Pyrats, Whereuppon the Prisoners were sent for & Examined. Liber
P. C. R.

Richard Galey one of the Seamen taken uppon the George in S^t Georges Riuer uppon suspicion of Pyracie Examined Sayth, That the s^d ship was a Dutch Ship belonging to Amsterdam in Holland Laden wth Dutch goods. That the skipper whom they tooke on board of her did tell them, shee was a free prize. That they tooke her in the p. 271 Roade att the Barbados, himselfe & six more going on board of her wth out Commisⁿ. That they tooke six men on board of her w^{ch} belonged to her, there being Seauen more on shoare th^t belonged to her. That they putt the skipper & Three more of the men uppon a Raft made of Cask in a Bay att Antego. That a ships Boate came & tooke them of the Raft, & carryed them on shoare. And th^t they came immediatly from Antego, to S^t Georges Riuer, That Richard Stockdale was one of the Ships Company when they tooke her, & th^t he was in the Hould att worke when they Layd her on board.
[Antego
probably= Antigua]

Richard Stockdale one of the Seamen belonging to the George taken in S^t Georges Riuer, Examined Sayth That he came from Amsterdam in the s^d Vessell called the George being shipped for th^t Voyage to the Barbados by the skipper Jacob Dirickson. That hee was on board the s^d Ship, when Richard Galey & his Complices layd the s^d ship on Board, & carryed her out of the Roade att the Barbados. That the s^d Galey & his Complices turnd^t the sayd skipper & Three persons more uppon a Raft att Antego, & that hee saw them safe on shoare.

Nicholas Salmon, one of the Seamen taken on board the George in S^t Georges Riuer, Examined uppon Suspicion of Piracy Sayth That the Ship S^t George afores^d was a Dutch Ship, as hee was told by the Skipper Jacob Dirickson, That hee wth Six more layd the sayd ship on board in Carlile Bay in Barbados on the third day of May.
 That they carryed the s^d ship from thence to Antego, & there putt the s^d Skipper & Three more uppon a Raft. And that they had a Boate came to them from a Pirke w^{ch} tooke them in, uerv neare the Shoare.

Richard Stockdale sworne & examined, Eod die, And th^t as a wittnes touching the Vessell called the S^t George of Amsterdam, Sayth That hee was shipped on board the s^d ship by skipper Jacob Dirickson about eight weekes before shee was taken att the Barbados by Richard Galey & his Complices. That amongst them there did not appeare any one person that bore more rule or sway then the other. That hee doth uerily beleieve that the Skipper wth the other Three persons, that att Antego were putt on the Raft are safe.
 That they tooke in their horses & Brandiwine att Amsterdam, & the