

Liber
P. C. R. James Veitch sworne 22th Nouemb^r 1659 before Philip Caluert Esq^r Sayth, That being att the howse of John Waghop sometime in Aprill last hee saw Two or Three Seamen wth baggs of Tob, carrying from the Tobacco howse, And th^t being in Company wth Cap^t Waring & Rob^t Kedger to looke uppon a hogshead of Tob w^{ch} Cap^t Waring had receiued of Rob^t Kedger, hee saw some of the seamen take Tob out of a hogshead th^t had the broad arrow upon it & marked wth R. C. That hee did heare John Waghop say, That hee had gyuen the Seamen that Tob, they were carrying away; & th^t looking uppon some of the s^d Tob, hee sayth th^t it was sownd & of a good coulor, & further sayth not. James Veitch.

Robert Cornish deposed in open Court sayth That the hogshead of Tob now in dispute was damnifyed; Lying in the Tobacco howse one whole summer uppon the grownd, wth one head out, & part of the Tob. out allso.

George Mackall Jurat idem quod Rob^t Cornish Suprà, This suite is dismissed, & Ordered That each pay their owne Charge, in Consideraõn of their neglect.

London v.
John Reade
p. 363 Know all men by these p^{nts} th^t I John London for diuers good & ualuable causes & Consideraõns mee thereunto mouing doe by these p^{nts} constitute ordaine & appoynt my trusty and welbeloued ffreind William Coursey to bee my true & lawfull Attorney for mee & in my name to sue John Reade & what my Attorney shall lawfully doe, I by these p^{nts} ratify & confirme John London.

The p^{ifs} Attorney sheweth in Court An accompt of Seuerall goods w^{ch} the dēft tooke up of the p^{if}, amounting to 760^t Tob. The dēft acknowledgeth the s^d accompt, And confesseth Judgm^t for Seauen hund^d & Sixty pownds of Tob unto the p^{if} in open Court.

The Court adiornd by the Gouverno^r till to morrow morning att 9 a Clock.

ffriday 2^d of March as afore.

All present as yesterday.

March 2
Rock v.
Battin This Day came Will^m Battin & acknowledgeth Judgm^t for One Thowsand nine hund^d & ffifty pownds of Tob & Cask to bee payd att Pickyawaxent on the last day of October next to M^r Joseph Rock, or his Attorney. And is in satisfaction of a Judgm^t or Order of Court yesterday had & obteyned agst him the s^d Battin by the s^d Rock for fueteene pownds, seauen shillings & nine pence sterl. as is conteyned in the s^d Order afores^d.

Cooke v
Attwicks
Vid. fol. 356 Came Cap^t Miles Cooke & assigneth ouer unto Philip Caluert Esq^r That Judgm^t yesterday had, agst Humphrey Attwicks for One Thow-