Vid. fol. 321

And allso fowrty shillings for the procurem<sup>t</sup> of Two seruants: w<sup>ch</sup> hee bownd by assignm<sup>t</sup> to the s<sup>d</sup> Cap<sup>t</sup> Battin for the Consideraōn afores<sup>d</sup> in England the latter end of August last & yett unsatisfyed.

May it therefore please this hon<sup>bte</sup> Court, the premises into their serious & most tender Consideraōn to take, & bee pleased to graunt him a Jury to consider of the whole dammages, costs, charges, & expences thereby incurred together wth the fowrty shillings, w<sup>ch</sup> hee engaged unto yo<sup>r</sup> Pet<sup>r</sup> to pay, as before exprest, as by acc<sup>t</sup> may ap-
