

of tobacco from the aforesaid Daud Abercromy or his Assigns as the hole of the said Ketch can well Contayne and for the speedyer dispatch and takeing in of the said tobacco and goods, the said William Caruer is to assist the said Daud with his men and Boate, belonging to the said Ketch And further the said William Carver doth couenante with the said Abbercromy that haueing receiued the said tobacco and Goods into his Ketch he the said William shall take the first opportunity of weather and wynd to Sayle vnto the Manhatans in the New Netherlands And by Gods assistance being there arriued shall then and there deliuer unto the aforesaid Daud or his Assigns all such tobaccoes or Goods as the said Daud did Ship a board his Ketch at S<sup>t</sup> Marys in the Province of Maryland, In Consideracōn of the p<sup>m</sup>isses the above named Daud Abercromy doth hereby promise [and ] Couenante to and with the aboue named . . . the aforesaid . . . Assigns the Jntire and full Sumē of Seauenty, p. 447 pounds Sterling to be payd in manner following (Vizt) Every twelue Guilders is to be accompted for one pounds Sterling; and for the Seauenty pounds Sterling makes Eight hundred and forty Guilders is to be payd to the said William in good Osenbridge at the price of Eight Stiuers the Dutch Elle, and in good Dutch dramms at the price of Eight and twenty Guilders the Anchor the said William haueing the liberty to choose soe much or soe little of either sorte as he shall thinke good It is alsoe further agreed and Couenanted with and betweene the aboue named partyes that the said Daud shall haue fifteene dayes for the Ladeing of the said Ketch at the aforesaid S<sup>t</sup> Maryes and for unladeing and discharge at the aforcsaid Manhatans And in case that the said Daud shall not accomplish to lade and vnlade the aforesaid Ketch within the tearme of the said fifteene dayes aforesaid, then the said Daud for every dayes demurrage and Longer stay of the Ketch shall pay or cause to payd vnto the said William or his Assigns the Intire and just Sumē of twenty Guilders in manner as the former money is to be payd for the performance of the p<sup>m</sup>isses, both partyes doe binde them their Executors Administrators and Assigns And in wittnes of the truth hereof hath Interchangeably sett to their hands and Seales the day and yeare aboue written.

Daud Abercromy X locus Sigill William Caruer X locus Sigill
Sealed and deliuered in the p<sup>s</sup>ence of Nicholas Harte Fran. Sayer

Whereas there was an Agreem<sup>t</sup> made the Eighth day of December 1660 Betweene M<sup>r</sup> William Caruer of Elizabeth Riuer in the County of Lower Norff in Virginea the one party And Daud Abercromy Master and Ownor of the Barque Speedwell the other party as by the same agreem<sup>t</sup> to which relacōn being had doth more at large appeare, And Whereas the said William Caruer hath fayled of performeing his Couenant in the said Agreem<sup>t</sup> mencōned with the said daud

Liber
P. C. R.