

the 6th of May last, which the said Neale hath deliuered in Co<sup>rt</sup> and the said Marmaduke Snowe doth ackknowledge they are the same papers. Liber
P. C. R.

This day came M<sup>r</sup> John Abington Attorney to Cap<sup>t</sup> Tho: Cornwallis and desires the . . . . That Capt . . . . May 20th Cornwaleys
v. _____

At a Provinciaall Co<sup>rt</sup> held att S<sup>t</sup> Marys on Tewsday the 3<sup>d</sup> of June 1662 p. 1029
June 3

Present Charles Calvert Esq<sup>r</sup> Leiutenn<sup>t</sup> Generall Philip Calvert Esq<sup>r</sup> deputy Leiutenn<sup>t</sup> and Chancellor Henry Sewall Esq<sup>r</sup> Sec<sup>r</sup> Baker Brooke Cap<sup>t</sup> James Neale and Robert Clarke Esq<sup>rs</sup> Councillors.

Was read this following paper (vizt)

Cæcilius by the Grant of our Sovereigne Lord Charles &c. Absolute Lord and Proprietary of the Provinces of Maryland and Avalon in the parts of America Lord Barron of Baltemore &c. To all persons to whome theis p<sup>r</sup>sents shall come Greeting, Knowe yee that wee for and in consideracō of the good and Laudable Services and endeavors of Abell Snowe of Cursitars office in Chancery Lane London gent, for the planting of our Province of Maryland And to the End the said Abell and his heires may be enabled hereafter to doe unto us and our heires faythfull and acceptable service within our said Province haue therefore of and with the advice of our Deare Brother Leonard Calvert Esq<sup>r</sup> and according to the tenor and Effect of our letters under our hand and Seale beareing date att London in the Realme of England the Eighth day of October 1640 and Enrolled by our Secretary of our said Province given granted enfeoffed and Confirmed vnto the said Abell Snowe all that p<sup>ar</sup>cell of land lying Betweene S<sup>t</sup> Johns Freehould and S<sup>t</sup> Marys Bay on the South and including the whole Freehould of Nathaniell Pope Saint Georges river on the west, the pathway leadeing from Popes Free hould aforcsaid vnto Mattapanient (alias Concepcon MANNOR) on the East and the free hould of Porke-hall, and a line drawne thence due Easte through the woods vntill it Intersect the Path way aforesaid on the North contayning by Estimacōn and now sett forth for one thousand acres of land, be itt more or less And all woods Quarrs, Mynes (royall Mynes excepted waters royall fishes, fishings fishing places, Advowsons and patronages of Churches Wrecks libty . . . . Hunting and hawking for any sorte of game whatsoever . . . . Comodities advantages Emolum<sup>ts</sup> and . . . . or any parte thereof To . . . . the said Abell Snowe . . . . and our heires as of . . . . Fealty . . . . Receipt two Barrells of good wheate or twenty shillings in money sterling, att the feaste of our Lords nativity, And wee doe by theis p<sup>r</sup>sents will and appoynte that the said parcell of land shall from henceforth for ever be one intire Mannor and be called by the name

Snow
v. Gerrard

p. 1030