

Liber
P. C. R. Nicholas Young Foreman George Reynolds Robert Maccklane
Thomas Bennett Robert Cager German Gillett Henry Hide Marke
Pheypo Francis Hill George Thompson W^m Hatton & Francis Batchelor Gent. who takeing the whole busines into their Custody together with the deposicōns here under written withdrew and went to trye the Cause, and after some tyme returned and brought in their Verdict endorsed on the backside of the declaracōn and answered thus (vizt) It is the Verdict of the Jury that the def^t is guilty.

M^r John Hatch aged fifty yeares or thereabouts sworne and examined 14th August 1662 Sayth That Cap^t Fendalls two young horses being with this depon^{ts} Mare in his Corne feild, he Caught his Mare and bid his Serv^t W^m Kidson to ride on her to Cap^t Fendalls and carry his horses home and tell him of them And further sayth that he remembers he heard the Children or Servants say that the s^d Kidson when he was goeing with the horses tooke vp in his hand a burnt sharpe locus Stake and further sayth not.

Jurat coram me James Neale.

p. 1097 M^{rs} Alice Hatch aged 44 yeares or thereabouts sworne and Examined Sayth . . . and after he rose he run very stoutly as if he were not hurte; and did leape over the fence into the Corne-feild and soe into the woods, after this depon^t sawe them not, this depon^t was tould by her sonne John that their Serv^t sayd att his returne that Cap^t ffendalls man had jeered him, but they needed not for he had given one of them enough intending by Jeereing and further sayth not.

Jurat coram me James Neale.

John Taylor aged 20 yeares or thereabouts Sworne Sayth That when Cap^t ffendalls horses went from his Masters Cow penn he this depon^t sawe noe hurte that either of them had, nor heare of any hurte they had and further sayth not.

Jurat coram me James Neale

Rob^t Cooper aged 17 yeares or thereabouts sworne sayth that when Cap^t Fendalls horses went from his Masters plantacōn he knowes not of any hurte they had and further sayth that he sawe W^m Kidson when he went to carry home the horses take with him a long sloping Stake sharpe att one End and further sayth not.

Jurat coram me James Neale

Jacob Griffyn aged 13 yeares or thereabouts sworne Sayth That when Cap^t ffendalls horses went from his Masters plantacōn he sawe noe hurte they had & further sayth that he sawe W^m Kidson that went home with them haue a long sloping stake in his hand burnt and sharpe att one End and further sayth not

p. 1098 . . . with this depon^t to take care of them, and sayd he would not watch them day and night to which this depon^t replied what is itt to me, but desired Cap^t Fendalls mayd to goe tell her Master, which she did and this depon^t went to lyte his pipe and Cap^t Fendall