Thomas Seymour also declareth uppon Oath, That, concerning the former bargaine, the p^{tf} could not performe his Couent^t And thereuppon the dēft would not pay the Tob. to the p^{tf}, yett after M^r Reuell agreed to giue to the p^{tf} 3000^l Tob. & gett the Land how hee could.

John Ashcomb likewise sayth uppon Oath That hauing conference with Randall Reuell, the s^d Reuell told this Depon^t th^t he had bought halfe of the s^d Plantaōn, And th^t hee would send up seruants—hands—to plant uppon it. And further he doubted not, but to make his peace, wth his L^{ps} Officers here.

Wherefore it was considered by the Court uppon this & other euidence That the s^d Gary & Reuell are partners in the Land, And th^t the rather because the dēft confesseth, th^t Reuell did deliuer up the former Condiōn made betweene him the s^d dēft & the p^{tf} w^{ch} unlesse hee were partner wth Gary would not haue left in his hand. It is therfore Ordered that the dēft (Randall Reuell lyuing in Accomack) pay to the p^{tf} Seuen hund^d fowrteene pownds of Tob, the remainder of the demand.
