Sir. We think it proper that you should still hold the Company of Militia lately ordered out, in Readiness, subject to the Call of Col^o Rawlings, who is appointed to command the Guard over the Prisoners at Fort Frederick. We received the other Day, Intelligence from the Board of War, that they had not then been able to procure a Guard for the Prisoners but expected to do it in a few Days, so that, by this Time, we expect they are on their Way.

We cannot make out the Commissions you request, 'til we know how the Vacancies arise, you will please to be particular with Respect to them, whether they arise by Death, Resignation, Removal or Substitutes
