

[Council to Mr David Poe Q. M.]

Liber C C
No. 22
p. 88

Sir This has been for some Time and at present is a Place of Rendezvous for a Number of Soldiers and Recruits belonging to the Continental Army and how long Circumstances may require the Detention of them, we know not but must request you to send us an immediate supply of Pork, we think two Waggon Loads would suffice hitherto they have subsisted upon the State Provisions which are now nearly exhausted.

Tuesday 11 April 1780.
