

[Council to the Commissioners of Frederick & Washington Counties] Liber C C

No. 22

Gentlemen We request you will furnish Forage for the Subsistence of the Teams employed by Col^o Hollingsworth in removing Cannon from Hughs's Works to Baltimore Town for the Use of the Continent

[Council to Col. Henry Hollingsworth]

Sir We received your Letter of the 27th Ins^t and it is with real Concern we inform you there is not an Ounce of Pork or Salt Beef at this Place belonging to the Public. To relieve the immediate Wants of the Troops, we have borrowed 30 Barrels of exceeding fine Pork and sent you by John Wormsly and have directed M^r Poe to procure all the Pork and Salt Beef he can at Baltimore Town, with the utmost Expedition and forward to you. In Case the Troops should embark before the Pork and Beef can be procured we have ordered him to send it to this Place. You will receive ten thousand Pounds by John Wormsly, to purchase Beef and other Provisions for the Troops. Enclosed are Orders on the Commissioners of Washington and Frederick to supply Forage, agreeable to your Request M^r Poe in Baltimore Town acts as Quarter Master and has Forage for that Purpose
