Sir As you inform us that you have Money in your Hands sufficient to procure the Plank and to have it conveyed to a proper Place, we request you to have this done immediately. As we do not know where you intend to make the Purchase and are not sufficiently acquainted with the Landings on the Eastern Shore, we must leave it to your own Judgment whether it would not be best to have the Plank conveyed to Baltimore, where the Vessel in that Case might take in all her Loading if a Flag is obtained, or if not, it might be readily sold for at least Cost and Charges

[Council to Jonathan Hudson Esqr]

Sir We have just received yours of the 5th Ins^t and on making an Enquiry into the State of the Treasury, are concerned to find it is not in our Power at present to pay the Whole of M^r Keepport's Order in your Favor. We yesterday paid M^r Keepport's Order at Sight for £2000 and have given an Order for five thousand to M^r Blake in Part of the Order for thirty thousand Pounds and the Remainder will be paid as soon as possible. We have to lament your Disappointment and to assure you it is founded in the exhausted State of the Treasury only and not in Want of Inclination in us.
