quest you to forward the Corn, Rye and Flour, with all possible Expedition to at You will procure necessary Vessels and Carriages for the Transportation to that Place. We have already directed you to restore or replace the Flour and Wheat seized in the Hands of the French Agents; inform us particularly of what has been so seized and returned. If you have any Bran, Shorts or Ship Stuff, belonging to the Public, that cannot be conveniently delivered, it will be proper to sell it.

[Council to General Washington]

Sir We have the Honor to enclose your Excellency a late Resolve of the General Assembly of Maryland. The apparent Iustice of the Claims of the Maryland Officers in the late Rawlings's and German Battalion, set forth in their Petition, induced the Assembly to enter into this Resolve. The Incorporation would obviate Inconveniencies to this State, in supplying its Officers and Men with Cloaths and other Necessaries, dispersed as they now are, yet the Expediency and Propriety of carrying the Measure into Execution is wholly referred to your Excellency's Consideration and Decision
