[Council to Henry Dickinson Esqr, Treasurer of the E. Shore]

Sir It is necessary the Money in the Eastern Shore Treasury should be immediately lodged in the Treasury of the Western Shore. We therefore request you to send by M^r M^cHard, all the Public money in your Hands

Sir—We are informed that you have a Quantity of Pork, which you purchased for the Army. We are much in Want of that Article and if you still have it on Hand and will order it immediately to the Head of Elk and delivered to Col^o Hollingsworth, we will pay you the Purchase Money and for your Trouble

[Council to Commissioners of Frederick County]

Gentlemen. It is of so great Importance, at this Time, that all the Provisions procured under the "Act for an immediate supply of the Army &^{ca} should be forwarded in the most expeditious and secure Manner and tho' Baltimore is at a greater Distance from most Parts of your County than George Town, we are of Opinion it would sooner reach the Head of Elk, if sent to Baltimore, and be more safely conveyed from thence, and we request this may be done
