[Council to Presidt of Congress]

Sir We have the Honor to acknowlege the Receipt of your Excellency's Letter of the 15th Instant; it was immediately communicated to the General Assembly of this State, now Sitting, who have the important Subject of it now under Consideration.

[Council to Colo Henry Hollingsworth]

Sir In Order to judge of the Quantity of Provision forwarded, under the Law for an immediate Supply of Flour &^{ca} it will be necessary to know what you have received and from whom; not only from the Commissioners, but from the Continental Purchasers. We have some of your Returns, but they are not compleat. Let us hear from you immediately on this Subject

[Council to Mr. Joshua Stevenson]

Sir We have received your Return by M^r W^m Smith, by which it does not appear what Quantities of the Provision procured you have on Hand. We request you to give us immediate Information of what you now have and where, and to whom you have forwarded any.
