Sir M^r Poe informs us that about 100 Barrels of Shad & 60 Barrels of Herrings may be had; we request you to apply to him to know the Persons who have them for sale, and purchase them on the same Terms which we gave M^r Hudson, both as to Price and Condition of Payment; you will have them carefully inspected before you receive them and, if merchantable, you will have them transported to Col^o Hollingsworth at the Head of Elk. You will deliver to M^r Poe such Quantity of Corn and other short Forage as will enable him to return such Quantity as he has borrowed for public use and also supply him occasionally with what may be necessary for that Post. p. 124

[Council to Mr. David Poe.]

Sir In Answer to yours of the 3^d Ins^t we have to inform you that we have requested M^r Donnellan to purchase the Fish and to supply you with short Forage sufficient to enable you to return what you borrowed and to furnish you occasionally with the Quantity that may be necessary for your Post

[Council to Colo. Richard Dallam]

Sir Yours of the 1st Ins^t we received and can only Say at present that you will not return the Flour received from McCan to M^r Smith, until we take further Order therein. We should readily transmit you the Money necessary to make you easy but it really is not in our Powers to command a Shilling.
