Liber C C
No. 22
p. 130

Sir As the time has passed, when the several Collectors were directed by Law to make their Payments of the first ten Pounds Tax, we flatter ourselves it is in your Power to supply our pressing Wants with a considerable Sum of Money. No sum less than £10.000 would be worth the Expence and Trouble of your sending to the Western Shore Treasury. If you can furnish that or a larger sum, We beg you will immediately bring or send it by a safe Hand to the Treasurer of the Western Shore, at the Public Expence, and that you will consider this as the subsisting Request of this Board to send forward the Money you may receive in future, having Regard to the Sum as limited above, until you receive our Directions to the Contrary
