Sir We do not know what M^r Young means by having his Guns charged at the same Price M^r Dorsey paid. The Guns sold the former were 9 Pounders, those sold the latter were none heavier than Sixes, therefore the Price of the one cannot regulate the Price of the other. The just and equitable Manner of fixing the Price is, to take the Matter up on the Terms specified in the Letter from this Board to M^r Young of the 12th Sept^r last, which are, "for the Proportion of Guns and Shott sell for at Baltimore." We request of you to ascertain the Baltimore Price of the Guns &^{ca} which you delivered M^r Young, at the Time of Delivery and inform us immediately that the Money may be received and applied to the Use of the State
