

necessary to prevent the pernicious Effects of a Competition with our Commissaries

Liber C C
No. 22

[Council to Daniel Jenifer, Esqr.]

Sir Yours of the 25th Inst we have this Day received. We have given Orders to the Commissaries in the Several Counties of this State, not to exceed 22..10..0 p Bushel for Wheat & 67..10..0 p C^t for Flour. This is the highest Price allowed to be given, yet we hope you may be able to procure it on better Terms. Your Application to be Commandant of the Regiment Extraordinary to be raised, did not reach us until after the Officers were appointed. You will have the Bacon sent to this Place as soon as possible, as we shall want it for the Recruits. It is altogether out of our Power to furnish you with the Money you require, but hope you will still be able to proceed in your Purchases
