

[Council to Capt. Geo. P. Keepports]

Liber C C
No. 22

Sir We expect that about 260 Soldier Shirts will be delivered by M^r W^m Smith on the Order of M^{rs} Lee. As M^r Griest has Directions to send some Vessels down for the Transportation of the Troops to the Head of Elk, it will be a good Opportunity of sending them down as well as the Overalls which we wrote for yesterday. We request your Attention to this Business

[Council to Mr. Isaac Griest, Balto.]

p. 162

Sir The Regiment extraordinary now at this Post, are nearly ready to march to the Northward; we prefer sending them by Water to the Head of Elk, and, as sufficient Number of Vessels cannot be procured here, request you will immediately, upon Receipt of this, procure by Hire or otherwise a Sufficient Number of Vessels to transport 300 Men from Hence to the Head of Elk. We have Reason to believe you will meet with no Difficulty in getting the Vessels on Hire, but should it be otherwise, you have a Power enclosed to impress.
