[Council to Colo Henry Hollingsworth]

Sir Your several Letters by Express with the Enclosures we have received and have not Time to write you fully on the several Matters therein contained. We must have a receiving Commissary at the Head of Elk and wish you to continue in that Appointment so far as relates to this State. Whenever you receive any Provision from the State Commissioners, you will have it immediately delivered to the Continental Agent or Quartermaster at Elk
P. S. We enclose you the Papers required.

[Council to Colo. Alex. L. Smith]

Sir We wrote you by last Post informing you of your Appointment to the Command of the Regiment Extraordinary and requesting you would be here as soon as it was convenient. As all the Men excepting the Invalids, belonging to that Regiment have proceeded to join the Army under General Washington, if you proceed to the Northward immediately, it will save you an unnecessary Journey to this Place. Many of the Officers appointed have not yet joined and we think your Presence exceedingly wanted.

Please to acknowledge the Receipt of this and your Acceptance of your Appointment. The Commissions will be forwarded in a few Days
