No. 22 besides what the Army will want and therefore do permit you to purchase such a Quantity of Flour, for the Use of the French as, with what you now have on Hand and have Shipped off, will amount to fifteen thousand Barrels.

[Council to Wm. Winder, Jno. Adams & Others Commrs of the Tax for Somerset County]

Gentⁿ We have not received your Nomination of the Inspectors in Somerset County, agreeable to Act of Assembly for the Regulation of the Staple of Tobacco, which we request you to forward to us by the first good Opportunity. We again enclosed you an Extract of the Law

[Council to Mr. Thomas Donellan]

Sir We send by M^r Poe 1000 £ of the new State Emission amounting, at 40 for 1, to 40,000 £ charged to you on Account, until you can settle your Accounts

[Council to Colo. Benjamin Nicholson]

Sir We received of the 5th of Aug^t & 23^d Ins^t and should have made out and sent Commissions for the Officers of your Battalion, agreeable to your Recommendation. The Multiplicity of Business before us and the Want of Information how the Vacancies mentioned in the List herewith transmitted arose, are the only Causes of our Delaying it so long. We have enclosed you all the Commissions that can be made out, at this Time, and shall send the rest as soon as the above Information is communicated
